SUMMER

2022

GIVE BACK TO GAMMA ZETA

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUPPORT THE KAPPA KAMPAIGN

In Kappa Kappa Gamma, we prioritize service—whether it's toward each other or our communities. Our mission as a sisterhood is to unite women to learn, grow, and inspire positive change throughout their lives.

Gamma Zeta teaches young women to learn constantly, give generously, and love wholeheartedly. As alumnae, we embody all these values and more, exemplifying the best of our organization. Giving generously is one of our top priorities, one of which we practice from day one. Now, we call on you to help us in our time of need.

Gamma Zeta has an exciting future and that is courtesy of our selfless, dedicated, and generous alumnae. Women who contribute actively and financially are responsible for the ever-growing success of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Whether you contribute time, words of support, or a gift, we are truly thankful that you are one of those who comprise Gamma Zeta.

No matter how strong we are, our chapter always needs sisters who are committed to serving and willing to give back to the organization. Will you join us in helping Gamma Zeta revel in the joy of being a premier Greek organization on Arizona's campus? Your financial support of the Kappa Campaign is necessary to ensure a positive sorority experience for the next generation of sisters.

If you have yet to make your gift, I strongly encourage you to do so by completing the enclosed form or by visiting tinyurl.com/GammaZetaAZ. If you would like to make a tax-deductible contribution, visit donate.kappakappagamma.org/GammaZetaHouse. Remember that pledges can be spread over time, so if you are able to stretch your gift over the next few years, you could more than double or triple the impact.

We want you to know how much we would value and appreciate your involvement in Gamma Zeta. Your support can help today's members pursue a bright future and become the best version of themselves. Regardless of how many days have passed since then, I hope that your dedication to service remains as strong as the day you joined—thank you.

A WORD FROM OUR DONORS

Q: WHAT DID YOUR UNDERGRADUATE EXPERIENCE AS A MEMBER MEAN TO YOU?

Nancy: The opportunity to meet and live with so many young women from different parts of the country was eye-opening. I had one sister going in, but many coming out.

Paula: Having a “home” in college with an array of wonderful young women of different backgrounds but a common goal of quality education and friendship was invaluable.

Ginx: I continue to reflect on how that experience helped shape who I am today. Perhaps the more obvious were gaining leadership experience and learning to work hard to achieve goals. The littler things are perhaps some of the biggest though: laughing and crying through ups and downs together, learning how to respect your peers and respect yourself, becoming a part of something bigger than just you, and seeing that everyone brings something unique to a group.

Kerstin: It meant the world to me. I can honestly say that my experiences and friendships formed in the Kappa house made me who I am today.

Q: HOW DID KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA PREPARE YOU FOR LIFE AFTER COLLEGE? HOW DID IT IMPACT YOUR CAREER PATH?

Nancy: Back when I was in college, many women studied education, as there just weren’t other options we thought would work for us when we married and had children. I think living with so many women, most of whom shared the same values, prepared me for the volunteer work I became involved in and taught me to being open to many different lifestyles and opinions.

Paula: I was moved to a different part of the country, and without Kappa I would have been lost. The connections and instant friendships made in the new community helped me to become a lifelong believer in the sisterhood.

Ginx: There were numerous leadership skills gained, and learning to respect unique, individual opinions has been invaluable.

Kerstin: I think Kappa Kappa Gamma provided me with lots of skills for life after college. Kappa gave me the opportunity to serve in leadership positions, understand the importance of serving your community, and helped me to learn how to always find a way to connect with others. It didn’t necessarily impact my career path, but it has impacted my involvement in my community, and it’s funny that I always find a Kappa wherever I go.

Q: WHAT MOTIVATED YOU TO SUPPORT THE CHAPTER AND THE KAPPA KAMPAIGN?

Nancy: I felt Kappa enriched my college years so much that I wanted to help ensure our chapter would be able to meet the needs of the new, much larger chapters of today. We added on a new, very large chapter room and some new dorm rooms, so now we can accommodate more live-ins than any house on campus. We took out a new mortgage to pay for this, and the capital campaign has helped to reduce the mortgage. As a result, we’re still able to do the maintenance required in the summer and needed repairs so our chapter house will continue to be a safe and lovely home for our members.

Paula: The ability to live in the house and then to maintain associations from college, and more importantly after college, I would not have had if not for Kappa. I feel I owed a “payback” for all I have appreciated from my Kappa life.

Ginx: The four years I spent at Kappa were such a period of growth in so many ways. When we toured the house for the 100-year celebration, it was clear that those things I learned—how to live with girls from all parts of the country, with different backgrounds, different perspectives, and different goals—are still in motion and the chapter is still building well-rounded, socially minded, thoughtful young women.

Kerstin: It’s always important to my husband and I that we support organizations that we have ties to. I love being a Kappa and want our chapter to be around for years to come so that other women can have the opportunity to build the lasting friendships that I have enjoyed.

Q: IF OTHER ALUMNAE ASKED WHY YOU WERE INVOLVED IN THE KAPPA KAMPAIGN, WHAT WOULD YOU TELL THEM? HOW WOULD YOU ENCOURAGE THEM TO GET INVOLVED?

Nancy: I ask them to think back on their Kappa years and remember the impact it had during college and the years following. It provided all of us with lifelong friends and memories to cling to!

Paula: I would simply ask: “What would your life have been without Kappa?” We owe it not only to the future, but to our own past experiences as well.

Ginx: They say you get what you give. Kappa gave me so much, and it’s my turn to give back. When we were actives, we never understood how much it really takes to run a chapter, keep a beautiful facility running, and all the dedication of alumnae that is required. I appreciate the women that are there locally who can spend their time and energy contributing. This is my way to help contribute from a little farther down the road in Phoenix.

Kerstin: I would tell alumnae that we have an opportunity to make Kappa a home for future generations of women (maybe even some of our own children!). I would just encourage them to donate, no matter the amount, or to get together with their group of friends and think about making a donation as a whole.

Gamma Zeta Shines in the Spring

Scholarships, Philanthropy Work, and More

This school year held many accomplishments and successes for Gamma Zeta Chapter. Joining a sorority in college is a life-changing experience, but garnering an education is the top priority for Kappa Kappa Gamma. We were honored to be awarded the Outstanding Academic Success Program Award for the 2021-22 academic year. In addition, Mary Jane Jackson Crist '66, a notable Gamma Zeta alumna, won an award for being the most recognizable and a strong backbone of Arizona Greek life with her generous donations to our community. To help members succeed, we provide resources and information about academic and career services offered by the university.

In April 2022, two of our members were fortunate enough to be awarded Panhellenic academic scholarships. Kameron Catt '19 was awarded the Living in Your Values Scholarship, and Alison Dimuro '20 was awarded the Academic Excellence Scholarship.

In addition to success through academic excellence, Gamma Zeta is thrilled to have also seen success through philanthropy. In the fall semester, we hosted Krispy Kreme with KKG, where our members sold donuts to raise money for the JED Foundation, a nonprofit organization that protects emotional health and helps prevent suicide for teens and young adults in the United States. In the spring semester, we hosted our second philanthropic event, Hoops for Hope, which is a basketball tournament played by teams that our members put together. This year, we raised over $37,000 for Wight Horse. Wight Horse was founded by one of our very own members, Paige Wightman '19, and is an organization that helps free people from medical debt so they can focus on healing. Our philanthropy program is unique in that, each year, members can present their philanthropic proposal to the entire chapter, which selects one cause to support for the year.

We have also hosted several sisterhood events, including a brunch at Flora's Market Run, a picnic with our sister sorority Gamma Phi Beta, and other events such as workout classes and pumpkin painting.

Gamma Zeta Chapter fosters a constant sense of community and sisterhood while placing high value on academics, philanthropy, and campus involvements. We are thrilled to continue watching our members' growth next year and in the years to come!

Alumnae Update

CHAPTER ETERNAL

Kathleen "Mimi" Messer Miller '64

entered Chapter Eternal on November 28, 2021. Mimi was a loyal Gamma Zeta sister and an elementary school teacher. She met her husband, Patrick, through her career in education. Mimi also founded a company, Special Things by Mimi, in 1980 and sold toys, dolls, and decorations. She enjoyed spending time with her husband of 51 years and their family, including walks on the beach and international travel.

ALUMNAE NEWS

Greek Hall of Fame

Kappa Kappa Gamma alumna Mary Jane Jackson Crist '66 was recently inducted into the Order of Omega Hall of Fame at the University of Arizona.

As an alumna, Mary Jane has served in leadership positions for Kappa Kappa Gamma and established the Barrow Foundation UK. In honor of her late husband, she also formed the Warren and Mary Jane Crist Foundation.

Mary Jane joins University of Arizona alumni in the Order of Omega Greek Hall of Fame as a standout member of the University's Greek community. She and others provide a shining example of leadership and community outreach at the university and throughout Arizona. Mary Jane joins previous inductee Edith "Edie" Sayre Auslander '58 to this prestigious group.

Leaving a Legacy!

Recent graduate Aubrey Thrower '18 isn't just a Gamma Zeta sister—she provides a shining example of involvement on campus for current and future sisters. Aubrey was heavily involved with Greek life, serving as a recruitment counselor and mentoring freshmen. She also joined Ardor Dance Company at the University of Arizona as founding member and selected to the 2021-22 Bobcats Senior Honorary.

As a campus tour guide and Arizona Ambassador president, Aubrey's numerous roles show sisters how they can impact their campus community. Though Aubrey is moving on from her time at the University of Arizona, her lasting impact as a Gamma Zeta sister will be long remembered.
